Wawa Offers Free Hot Coffee at Philadelphia and Surrounding Area Stores on Sunday in Celebration of Hometown Team Playing in the Big Game

Wawa Toasts Philadelphia's Team Playing for a Championship with Free Any Size Hot Coffee Until 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, February 9

Wawa, PA (Feb. 9, 2025) – Wawa, Inc., today announced that in celebration of its hometown team playing in the Big Game on Sunday, February 9, the company will offer customers free any size hot coffee until kickoff time at 6:30 p.m. at more than 500 Wawa locations across Philadelphia market area, New Jersey and Delaware.

As a company with roots in the Philadelphia area, Wawa is thrilled to take part in the excitement of its hometown team playing to bring a championship to the City of Brotherly Love. And in stores across the Philadelphia region, the enthusiasm surrounding this year's championship-bound football team from customers and associates has been incredible!

"At Wawa, we've always had a special connection to our Philadelphia sports teams, and we get just as excited as our customers do when one of them is playing for a chance to win a championship. So, in honor of this year's football team and to toast this championship game, we are thrilled to offer free any size hot coffee until kickoff to customers across PA, NJ and DE," said Alex Costabile, Chief Customer Officer. "We talk about having Goose Pride here at Wawa, but this week, we'll be cheering for another bird on Sunday and hope they bring our city another championship! Go Birds!"
